

The Organizing Authority SM

For Immediate Release Contact: Kerri Colombo, Cornerstone Organizing Vice President, NAPO-CT

Date: May 15, 2009 Phone/email: 203-794-0284
cornerstoneorganizing@hotmail.com

BETHEL ENTREPRENEUR ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT OF NAPO-CT FOR 2009-10

Bethel, CT – Kerri Colombo, owner of Cornerstone Organizing, has been elected Vice President of the Connecticut Chapter of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO). Kerri founded Cornerstone Organizing in 2003. Prior to that, Kerri worked in the network television and healthcare fields as a Department Coordinator. She holds an M.S. in Education and is a member of NAPO (www.napo.net) and the National Study Group on Chronic Disorganization (www.nsgcd.org).

NAPO-CT is a not-for-profit association with 50+ Professional Organizers dedicated to making the lives of their clients easier by transferring organizing skills. Members of NAPO-CT are experts in nearly 42 specialties including: residential organizing – garages, attics, basements, closets, etc.; computer consulting and training; estate organization; event planning; home office and business organizing; finances and bookkeeping; paper management; moving/relocations; seminars/public speaking; organizing Seniors, children, students, adults with ADD and the Chronically Disorganized. For more information, visit www.napo.net and www.napoct.com. Monthly Chapter meetings are open to anyone interested in becoming a Professional Organizer and are held on the third Friday of each month at the North Haven Holiday Inn. Meetings feature guest speakers, education and guidance, marketing tips, networking opportunities and more.