

For Immediate Release

Contact:

Sandra Wheeler, For Peace of Mind
Director of Communication & Technology, NAPO-CT

Date: May 15, 2009

Phone/email:

860-608-0451
forpeaceofmind@sbcglobal.net

LOCAL ENTREPRENEUR ELECTED DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATION & TECHNOLOGY OF NAPO-CT FOR 2009-2010

Waterford, CT- Sandra Wheeler, owner of For Peace of Mind – Professional Organizing for home and office, has been elected Director of Communication & Technology of the Connecticut Chapter of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO-CT). Sandra holds a B.S. in Psychology from UCONN and attended the University of New Haven's Organizational Psychology Masters program. She is a member of the Chamber of Commerce of Eastern Connecticut and has 20 years of experience in the corporate arena.

NAPO-CT is a not-for-profit association with 50+ Professional Organizers dedicated to making the lives of their clients easier by transferring organizing skills. Members of NAPO-CT are experts in nearly 42 specialties including: residential organizing – garages, attics, basements, closets, etc.; computer consulting and training; estate organization; event planning; home office and business organizing; finances and bookkeeping; paper management; moving/relocations; seminars/public speaking; organizing Seniors, children, students, adults with ADD and the Chronically Disorganized. For more information, visit www.napo.net and www.napoct.com. Monthly Chapter meetings are open to anyone interested in becoming a Professional Organizer and are held on the third Friday of each month at the North Haven Holiday Inn. Meetings feature guest speakers, education and guidance, marketing tips, networking opportunities and more.