

| Membership Category | National Fee | Chapter Fee | Description | National Benefits | Chapter Benefits |
|--|---------------------|--------------------|--|--|---|
| Academic | 260 | 125 | Employed as an educator, academic researcher, or writer engaged in an area of study within the organizing and productivity profession at an accredited college or university -- but who does not offer organizing or productivity services to | May serve as a Director on NAPO's Board and participate in Board voting as part of Board service, but does not have general voting privileges and cannot serve as an Officer of the Association. | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as stated in Bylaws. |
| Allied | 260 | 125 | Employed by a government agency, post-secondary educational institution, non-profit organization, for-profit entity, or self-employed -- however, does not offer services to the general public | May serve as a Director on NAPO's Board and participate in Board votes as part of Board service, but does not have general voting privileges and cannot serve as an Officer of the Association. All privileges on the Chapter level. | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as stated in Bylaws. |
| Emeritus | 75 | 50 | Retired Professional Members no longer engaged in the Organizing and Productivity profession, are at least 55 years of age, and have been a NAPO member for at least 15 years. | entitled to voting privileges, and may serve in certain positions on the Board of Directors. | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as stated in Bylaws. |
| Employee of Professional Member | 155 | 125 | Business owners with employees may purchase memberships for their employees at a discounted rate. The employee's membership will be prorated and the expiration date will match that of the employer. The membership belongs to the Professional Member and is transferable to another designated employee with written notification to NAPO headquarters. | Not entitled to voting privileges and cannot serve on the Board of Directors. However on the Chapter level receives all privileges. | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as stated in Bylaws. |
| Professional Member | 275 | 125 | To qualify for Professional status, members must have completed the three Professional Practices courses (see Provisional Member section above) OR earned the Certified Professional Organizer® credential prior to becoming a NAPO member. | Entitled to the full range of NAPO membership benefits and eligibility to serve on the Board of Directors. Professional membership is offered at two levels: (1) Professional Member, (2) Professional Member with employees | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as stated in Bylaws. Prof Members are eligible to serve as an officer |
| Provisional Member | 275 | 125 | Engaged in the organizing and/or productivity profession. After completion of the Professional Practices coursework, Provisional Members advance to Professional Member status. On average, NAPO members complete the three Professional Practices courses and are upgraded to Professional status within 4 | Privileges of being listed in the Professional Organizer and Productivity Consultant Search Tool, voting privileges, and serving on the Board of Directors are reserved for our Professional Members. | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as stated in Bylaws. |
| Student Member | 50 | 40 | enrolled as a full-time student at an accredited college or university | Cannot serve on Board of Directions, cannot voting on National level, but has all privileges on chapter level. | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as |
| Corporate Associate Member | 3 levels | 250 | NAPO is proud to partner with businesses that manufacture, sell, and/or distribute organizing and productivity products and related services. | Corporate Associate Members designate one individual as their company's representative to NAPO. The designated representative is entitled to voting privileges and may serve as a Director on NAPO's Board, although they | All members in good standing are eligible to serve on the Board of Directors and maintain voting privileges as stated in Bylaws. |